Vacancies

There are presently two vacancies on Allhallows Parish Council and anybody who is interested in becoming a Councillor should send a brief letter (including the time they have lived in the parish together with details of the skills they can bring to the council) to the clerk. (Mr. Trevor Gear, Brandraw Mount, West Street, Aspatria, CA7 3HG or e-mail to allhallows.parishcouncil@yahoo.co.uk)

Parish Newsletters

The clerk to the Parish Council has been appointed the editor of the Newsletter and the Parish Council is grateful for the hard work and time that Councillor Janet Mansfield has put into being editor for many years. The council is keen to promote groups within the parish and if any group has a news worthy item please forward details to the clerk by the closing dates which will be 31st January, 30th April, 31st July and 31st October. The newsletters will then be circulated in the two weeks following the closing date.

Refuse Collections

Residents are reminded that any failure to collect refuse by Allerdale Borough Council (including Garden Bins and Purple Bags must be reported to the Council within 48 hours or they will not be collected

Public Consultations

Parishioners should be aware there are several public consultations underway now:-

Success Regime about the NHS in this area (including the removal of beds at Wigton and Maryport hospitals) (WWW.succesregimecumbria.nhs.uk)

Boundary Commission regarding the Wards for Allerdale Borough Council (WWW.lgbce.org.uk)

North West Coast Connections for the route of the new high power pylons (WWW.northwestcoastconnections.com)

If you have any comments, please visit their respective web sites or forward them to the Clerk who will pass them on.

Be Seen

I have been asked to remind you that with the darker nights it is very important that if you are walking on the roads in the parish it extremely important that you wear something that is highly visible so that you can be seen by drivers of vehicles
